

JAMES J. PETERS VETERANS AFFAIRS DIETETIC INTERNSHIP PROGRAM coordinated with
NYU MASTER OF SCIENCE in CLINICAL NUTRITION

ESTIMATED BUDGET
(2008-2009)

INCOME

JJPVA STIPEND $ 14,892 (paid bi-weekly, August to August)

EXPENSES

No Internship Application Fee

NYU Graduate School Application Fee Waived

D & D Computer Matching Fee $50

NYU Tuition (34 Credit Masters Program)

$1,149 per credit = $ 39,066; Additional registration fees: $ 3240

- Financial Aid: Tuition assistance from NYU may be available. Students may apply for loans; full-time equivalency status is maintained for the twelve months of the internship. Students are eligible to apply for scholarships once full-time (last Fall semester).

Housing:

Housing options are available at Mt. Sinai Medical School or NYU dormitories: Mt. Sinai housing: 50 E 98 Street, between Madison & Park Avenues $532/month

- Private bedroom in shared suite

NYU Dormitories:

Visit <http://www.nyu.edu/housing/payments/rates.html> for current rates.

Transportation:

- Free Shuttle Bus from Mt. Sinai dormitories to-and-from JJPVA
- Free parking available at JJPVA and St. Albans VA sites, NYC public bus or subway transportation $2.00/ride Interns relying on public transportation during the internship may qualify for a free unlimited monthly Metrocard from the VA during the internship

Other Expenses:

- ADA Associate Membership $45.00
- Professional Liability Insurance $35.00
- Student Membership, Greater NY Dietetic Association $20.00
- Books & Supplies (approx) $ 200 per semester NYU
- Internship references/supplies (approx) $350